

Please consider allowing small, independently run companies to continue supplying excellent service to internet users. I have used Sonic.net in Sonoma, CA for 10 years. Were the FTC to agree to deregulation under the current petition, a blow would be struck to free enterprise. Please consider the monopoly that we call the phone company, and keep them in check.